ITAT's relief to Congress after bank accounts 'frozen' claim

INDIVIA DHASMANA
New Delhi, 16 February

A ₹115 crore income-tax demand on the Congress triggered a political slugfest on Friday.

The Congress initially claimed that its nine bank accounts had been frozen by revenue authorities.

However, a tax tribunal later unfroze them, and the Congress was allowed to operate them, said the Opposition party.

Contrary to these claims, sources stated that it was not the accounts that were frozen, but an amount of around ₹115 crore, which remains attached. The Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) has scheduled the next hearing for February 21.

In the morning, the party announced that the freezing of its main bank accounts by the I-T authorities had disrupted all political activity. Party leader Vivek Tankha told the ITAT that the Congress would be unable to participate in the "festival of elections" if its accounts remained frozen.

Party treasurer Ajay Maken claimed that the I-T department had frozen the Congress' main bank accounts on "flimsy grounds". This action, he said, affected all political activity of the party, just weeks before the general elections were to be announced.

Maken also claimed that the party was unable to use even the funds received under its crowdfunding initiative.

Farmers pause protest; govt says resolution soon

SAJNEEB MUKHERJEE
New Delhi, 16 February

Farmers demanding a law on the minimum support price (MSP) regime on Friday put on hold their march to Delhi for a few days.

The farmer unions would now hold another round of negotiations with the representatives of the Centre on Sunday.

Information and broadcasting minister Anurag Thakur told reporters on Friday that talks with the agitating farmers were on and a solution would be found soon.

Meanwhile, commuters in Punjab faced inconvenience on Fridays as buses stayed off the roads in response to a call given by the Samyukta Kisan Morcha for a 'Bharat Bandh'. The All India Kisan Sabha, in a statement, claimed that the bandh evoked strong response. Agriculture Minister Arjun Munda, who met farmers' representatives late on Thursday along with Commerce Minister Piyush Goyal and Minister of State for Home Affairs Nityanand Rai, told reporters the talks were "positive", adding: "We believe we will find a solution together peacefully." Meanwhile, markets and commercial establishments in Punjab and Haryana remained shut due to the bandh call, while farmers held demonstrations and blocked national highways in Pathankot, Tarn Taran, Bathinda and Jalandhar.

In Uttar Pradesh's Muzaffarnagar, Bharatiya Kisan Union (BKU) leader Rakesh Tikait participated in a protest in support of the farmers' demands.

8 crops procured at MSP will need ₹6 trillion: CRISIL

An analysis done by CRISIL Market Intelligence and Analytics of the 16 out of the 23 crops for which MSP is declared showed that prices of eight of them were below the MSP while the remaining was above the same.

The analysis was undertaken between July 2022 and June 2023 for kharif crops and Jan 2023 and December 2023 for rabi crops. The eight crops taken by CRISIL for the analysis represented over 90 per cent production of the field crops in the period. The analysis showed that if all the eight crops are procured at MSP, then it would require an upfront capital of ₹6 trillion while if just the difference between the MSP and average market price is paid, then an expenditure of ₹21,000 crore would have to be spent.

Legal views split on disclosure of political donations by India Inc

RUCHIKA CHITRAVANSHI
New Delhi, 16 February

The implications of the Supreme Court's verdict on the electoral bonds scheme on India Inc's annual disclosures about political donations and bond purchase remain unclear, with legal experts divided on the issue.

The apex court in its Thursday order declared the 2017 amendment to Section 182 of the Companies Act, which mandated non-disclosure of particulars on political contributions, as "unconstitutional".

"Harmonised reading of the SC judgment with constitutional provisions would mean any financial statement of companies would now require a disclosure. This would, however, be applicable to donations made after February 15, 2024, when the SC's order came into effect," said Mukesh Butani, founder and managing partner, BMR Legal.

Prior to the amendment, the Act required companies to disclose any amount contributed to a political party, along with the particulars of the amount donated and the name of the recipient. The Act then also limited the amount a company could donate in a single financial year to 7.5 per cent of the company's average net profit during the previous three financial years.

before making political contributions" and that "such contributions, along with the details of political parties, shall be disclosed in the financial statements starting from FY24."

However, Anjali Jain, partner at Areness law firm, flagged uncertainty about whether the judgment would apply retrospectively to contributors. "If so, the current MCA (Ministry of Corporate Affairs) portal would need to be updated to align with these requirements," Jain said, adding that the judgment is probably going to have a "prospective effect".

The Supreme Court has asked State Bank of India to provide detailed particulars of all political contributions made via electoral bonds during the specified period. "It is unlikely that the corresponding contributors would also be required to bring such disclosures to the front," Jain added.

Despite the uncertainty, some experts believe companies may still disclose these contributions in their financial statements in the spirit of transparency. "Companies would have to approach the MCA to seek clarification on disclosure requirements this year, so that there is no confusion," Butani added.

The MCA did not respond to an email query on this issue.

BJP, Congress leaders stopped from visiting Sandeshkhali

Senior leaders of the BJP and the Congress were stopped by police on Friday from visiting the trouble-torn Sandeshkhali, escalating the political tensions in the state as the leaders accused West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee of fostering a "lawless situation" and attempting to "communalise" the issue.

A delegation from the BJP, led by Union Ministers Pratima Bhoomik and Annapurna Devi, was stopped by the police at Rampur village.

In New Delhi, the National Commission for Scheduled Caste chief Arun Halder said the panel recommended the imposition of President's rule in West Bengal in its report submitted to President Droupadi Murmu on alleged harassment of women by TMC supporters in Sandeshkhali, a day after a team from the Commission visited the area.

Kejriwal moves motion of confidence in Delhi Assembly

Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal moved a motion of confidence in the Assembly on Friday, a day ahead of his appearance before a city court following an Enforcement Directorate complaint against him for skipping summonses in the excise policy case.

The motion will be discussed in the Assembly on Saturday in presence of ruling Aam Aadmi Party MLAs and Leader of Opposition Kamvir Singh Bidhuri since seven of the eight BJP legislators were suspended for the remainder of the session for allegedly interfering during the Lt Governor's address on Thursday.

This is the second time that the Kejriwal government has sought a trust vote in the 70-member Assembly. In the current Assembly, the AAP has 62 MLAs while the BJP has eight.
